

ULTIMATE SUPERCAR GARAGE OPENS ITS TICKETING AND WELCOMES NEW MANUFACTURERS AND EXHIBITORS

Paris, October 16 2025 – The Ultimate Supercar Garage, the new event entirely dedicated to modern supercars and co-located with Rétromobile, is taking a new step forward: the official opening of its ticketing on Friday 17 October, marking the start of a long-awaited first edition.

For the first edition of Ultimate Supercar Garage, three types of tickets are available:

- General Admission Ticket: valid for the days open to the public, from Friday, January 30 to Sunday, February 1, 2026.
- Professional, VIP and Media Ticket: reserved for the exclusive day on Thursday, January 29, 2026, dedicated to exchanges between industry players and partners.
- Combined Rétromobile + Ultimate Supercar Garage Ticket: a preferential price giving access to both events — Rétromobile, from January 28 to February 1, 2026, and Ultimate Supercar Garage, from January 30 to February 1, 2026.

On this occasion, two new manufacturers are joining the already exceptional line-up at the show: Alfa Romeo and Maserati. Two legendary brands that embody Italian design, performance and elegance.

They join an already prestigious selection featuring Bugatti, Ferrari represented by Charles Pozzi, Koenigsegg, Aston Martin, Pagani Automobili and Lamborghini Paris – via its French distributor Car Lovers.

This exceptional line-up will make the Ultimate Supercar Garage the finest showcase for innovation, design and performance in today's automotive world.

Santo Ficili, CEO of Alfa Romeo and COO of Maserati, stated:

« Alfa Romeo and Maserati are proud to join the Ultimate Supercar Garage, a stage that celebrates the highest expression of automotive performance, design, and passion. As two icons of Italian heritage, style, and innovation, we're excited to bring our distinctive spirits to Paris – a city that mirrors our values of beauty, history, and creativity. It's the perfect setting to showcase what drives our Biscione and our Trident forward. »

NEW EXHIBITORS ARE ALSO JOINING THE ADVENTURE

The Ultimate Supercar Garage continues to expand with the arrival of new prestigious players who will enrich the visitors experience and embody the diversity of the luxury automotive world:

Amian Collection

Amian Collection Cars offers a curated selection of luxury, sports, and hypercars, catered to enthusiasts of rare and exclusive high-performance vehicles. Specializing in Bugatti and Pagani, we see ourselves as a concierge in the high-end automotive world, providing personalized service to ensure each client finds the perfect car to match their lifestyle and passion.

Nardone

Nardone Automotive reimagines the Porsche 928 with respect and audacity, enhanced by today's technology and craftsmanship. A Restomod conceived as a continuation of the original model, with an elegant, timeless, and minimalist design. Each creation embodies a simple idea: to revive the spirit of grand touring, without compromise.

Laffitte Automobile

Laffite Automobili is a new hypercar brand based in Turin and founded by Bruno Laffite and Pascal Cohen. The brand is tapping into a completely new segment of the automotive industry, producing a range of hypercars that are all genuine race cars approved for road use. The Laffite LM1 is the brand's first model, limited to 24 unique examples worldwide. Production at the Turin factory will begin in late 2025.

Mignatta

More than a sports car, the Automobili Mignatta "Rina" is a style icon - the harmony of past and future, created to restore the essence of driving with authentic Italian flavour, shaped around every owner's vision.

HWA

From motor racing to precision engineering, HWA has established itself as a leading player combining technology, expertise and passion. Created in 1998 by Hans Werner Aufrecht and based in Affalterbach (Germany), the independent company fields the most successful team in the DTM and is a sought-after partner when it comes to developing high-performance cars. As specialists in cutting-edge motor racing technology, together with the relevant development, support and logistics services, HWA is also responsible for many global automotive OEM and sustainability projects.

Gordian von Schöning, Technical Director at HWA AG, stated:

« We are very proud to join the inaugural Ultimate Supercar Garage in Paris with the HWA EVO. For HWA, this car embodies our DNA: technological excellence, motorsport expertise and the passion to turn automotive dreams into reality. Paris provides the perfect stage – a city where tradition, design and innovation come together in a unique way. With the HWA EVO we want to demonstrate how we continuously create something new from our heritage, building a bridge between the past and the future »
